

Information regarding seminary works, lectures and workshops

Seminary works (a written examination in the form of a seminary work is one of the possible ways to complete a subject in doctoral studies).

The professional level of the seminary work is evaluated by an examiner who decides whether the doctoral student can already submit the seminary work together with a completed Record of doctoral study examination to Study Department Officer of doctoral studies.

The seminary work in English must include the following information:

- title, abstract, key words (minimum 5), text with citations, used literature at the end of the seminary work (sorted alphabetically by authors' last name + ISBN, ISSN), other sources and online sources
- Number of pages – minimum of 5 and maximum of 15 pages
- in this way it is not possible to pass language exam at Foreign Language Centre at Faculty of Education

LECTURE

The professional level of a written output will be evaluated by student's supervisor who will also decide whether the student can already submit the written output to Study Department Officer of doctoral studies.

The written output in English must include the following information:

- title, abstract (one paragraph), key words (min. 5), text with citations, used literature at the end of the seminary work (sorted alphabetically by authors' last name + ISBN, ISSN), other sources and online sources
- Number of pages – minimum of 5 and maximum of 15 pages

WORKSHOP

The professional level of a written output will be evaluated by student's supervisor who will also decide whether the student can already submit the written output to Study Department Officer of doctoral studies.

The written output must include the following information:

- title
- project's evaluation, photo documentation and results analysis
- Number of pages – minimum of 5 and maximum of 15 pages

Submission:

Once the examiner evaluates the professional level of seminary work or the supervisor the lecture or workshop, the doctoral student submits the written outputs to the study department as soon as possible.
