About the School

The Faculty of Art and Design at Jan Evangelista Purkyně University in Ústí nad Labem in the Czech Republic (FAD) is a progressive school characterized by verified quality in the context of both Czech and Central-European artistic education. It does not belong to classical academies based exclusively on teaching traditional artistic expressional forms; on the contrary, it emphasizes contemporary tendencies of visual culture, electronic media, photography, and interdisciplinary overlaps.

Postgraduate – MgA. (MA) Photography / two years

A graduate from the Studio goes through systematic vocational training preparing him/her for a professional career as an independent photographer, but also through the inspiring milieu of a community consisting of students who come from various cultural (and language) environments. At the same time, a student of this branch will get acquainted with the rudiments of polemical-critical thinking, and develop his/her ability of perception, analysis, and reflection of photography as an autonomous artistic discipline. The concept of study will also allow them to get a basic knowledge of the Czech cultural milieu as well as the broader framework of contemporary Central European visual culture.

Deadline for Application: April 28, 2023.
